Features of the Gatehouse Awards (GA) ESOL International (Classic) Qualifications

- External assessment: all examinations are conducted by interlocutors and invigilators trained in their role, then externally assessed and moderated by Gatehouse Awards' experienced and supportive examiners and moderators.
- Full guidance provided: guidance is given to teachers and Candidates in the form of unit standards, unit amplification, mark schemes and clear Key Language items mapped to each skill at each level
- Flexible examination dates: examinations can be conducted at times that are suitable to Centres and Candidates – there are no 'assessment windows'.
- Flexible examination structure: take any combination of units and receive unit certification, or focus on skills areas one at a time. Re-sit examinations for only the skill area not yet achieved.
- Feedback available: unsuccessful Candidates can request a breakdown of their assessment results to help prepare them for their re-sit.

About the Gatehouse Awards ESOL International (Classic) Qualifications

ESOL International Qualifications are designed for Candidates who are not native speakers of English and who wish to achieve a high quality, internationally recognised qualification in English that is available and recognised worldwide and at the highest level (RQF Level 3 / CEFR C2). They are suitable for Candidates who are preparing for entry to higher education or professional employment in the UK or elsewhere. ESOL International qualifications are designed to reference the descriptions of language proficiency in the Common European Framework Reference for Languages (CEFR). The levels in the CEFR have been mapped to the levels in the Regulated Qualifications Framework for England, Wales and Northern Ireland (see Pathways to Proficiency – the alignment of language proficiency scales for assessing competence in English Language DFES / QCA, 2003).

This specification covers all levels (CEFR A1 to C2 / Entry Level 1 to Level 3) of the suite of Gatehouse Awards ESOL International (Classic) qualifications. The qualifications include all four modes – Speaking, Listening, Reading and Writing at each level. The qualifications are designed to reference the descriptors of language proficiency in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). The levels in the CEFR have been mapped to the levels in the RQF for England, Wales and Northern Ireland.

These qualifications are available within the United Kingdom and overseas and are only offered in English.

The qualifications are regulated by the Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulations (Ofqual) in England and are part of the Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF). All versions of the qualifications are listed on the Register of Regulated Qualifications which is operated by Ofqual and can be accessed here: <http://register.ofqual.gov.uk/Qualification>.

The information contained within this document must be made available by Centres to all members of staff involved with the administration, conduct and delivery of Gatehouse Awards ESOL International (Classic) qualifications. In addition, essential policies, procedures and forms can be found on the Gatehouse Awards website: www.gatehouseawards.org

Qualification Aims and Objectives

The aim of these qualifications is to demonstrate a Candidate's ability to communicate using the English language across CEFR levels A1 (Entry Level 1) to C2 (Level 3).

The qualifications assess the Candidate's competency in all four skills: speaking, listening, reading and writing at each level.

All four skills are assessed separately, via externally set examination papers.

At Entry Levels (A1 – B1), a separate qualification is available in speaking and listening skills.

The overall objective is to provide a Candidate with a qualification that they can use to prepare for higher education or employment where the ability to speak, write and understand verbal and written English is required.

The qualification has been designed to reflect the four domains as specified by CEFR: the public domain, the personal domain, the educational domain and the occupational domain.

- The public domain refers to everything connected with ordinary social interaction for instance; business and administrative bodies; public services; cultural and leisure activities of a public nature; relations with the media etc.
- The personal domain comprises family relations and individual social practices.
- The occupational domain embraces everything concerned with a person's activities and relations in the exercise of his or her occupation.
- The educational domain is concerned with the learning/training context (generally of an institutional nature) where the aim is to acquire specific knowledge or skills.

(CEFR available: http://www.coe.int/t/dg4/linguistic/Source/Framework\_EN.pdf)

Intended Audience and Entry Requirements

Gatehouse Awards ESOL International (Classic) qualifications test the speaking, listening, reading and writing skills of Candidates whose first language is not English and who:

- attend an English language course either in the UK or overseas; or
- are learning English as part of their school or college curriculum; or
- need English for their everyday or working life; or

- require an externally recognised certification of their level of proficiency in English; or
- are attending courses over a period of time and require a series of graded examinations which provide steps towards proficiency; or
- attend short courses in English, for example at summer schools.

Gatehouse Awards ESOL International (Classic) qualifications are designed to complement general English language courses.

These qualifications are appropriate for anyone aged 14 or above.

There are no prior learning requirements for these qualifications. However, Centres are expected to ensure that the qualification they offer to their Candidates is appropriate to their age, ability and needs. For example, Centres should not offer a Candidate a qualification that is the same level as a similar English language qualification they have already attained.

Qualification Availability

The Gatehouse Awards ESOL International (Classic) qualifications are offered in the UK and internationally by Approved GA Centres and/or Representatives holding approval from Gatehouse Awards.

If your organisation is not currently a recognised Gatehouse Awards Centre, or you do not have approval to offer ESOL International qualifications, please contact us.

Qualification Structure

All GA ESOL International (Classic) qualifications are unitised to allow Candidates to re-take examinations for the individual elements of the qualification.

The ESOL International (Speaking and Listening) (Classic A1, A2, B1) qualifications are two-unit qualifications: one in Speaking and one in Listening. Candidates are assessed on their ability to speak and listen in English.

The ESOL International (Classic) four-unit qualifications each have four mandatory units: Speaking, Listening, Reading and Writing. Candidates are assessed on their ability to use all the skills.

In order to achieve the GA ESOL International (Classic) qualification at the level entered for, Candidates must achieve all the mandatory units.

Please note: At Entry Levels 1 and 2 (A1 and A2), Speaking and Listening skills are assessed together during a single examination with an Interlocutor. At Level B1 and above, Speaking and Listening skills are separated into two examinations.

The GA ESOL International (Classic) qualifications at Levels 1, 2 and 3 (B2, C1, C2) differ from those at Entry Level in that they cannot be awarded as a Speaking and Listening qualification only.

Equivalent Levels: RQF and CEFR

Overview of the Descriptors of Competence at each Level

(Adapted from the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: Learning, Teaching, Assessment).

A1

Can understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type. Can introduce him/herself and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, people he/she knows and things he/she has. Can interact in a simple way provided the other person talks slowly and clearly and is prepared to help.

A2

Can understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment). Can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters. Can describe in simple terms aspects of his/her background, immediate environment and matters in areas of immediate need.

B1

Can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. Can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken. Can produce simple connected text on topics which are familiar, or of personal interest. Can describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes & ambitions and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.

B2

Can understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialisation. Can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party. Can produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.

C1

Can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognise implicit meaning. Can express him/herself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. Can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes. Can produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organisational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices.

C2

Can understand with ease virtually everything heard or read. Can summarise information from different spoken and written sources, reconstructing arguments and accounts in a coherent presentation. Can express him/herself spontaneously, very fluently and precisely, differentiating finer shades of meaning even in more complex situations.

Model of Assessment

The GA ESOL International (Classic) qualifications are externally assessed via examination papers determined, issued and externally assessed and moderated by Gatehouse Awards.

All examinations are conducted under controlled examination conditions.

In the UK, the examinations are conducted at Approved Centres by the Centre’s staff. Speaking examinations are both audio and video recorded. (Please note: video recording may not be possible for Candidates who are under 18 years of age, in which case the audio recording alone will be relied upon).

Where these qualifications are delivered outside the UK, arrangements may vary from country to country.

All assessment decisions will be made by GA examiners.

Prepared & Unprepared Tasks

The GA ESOL International (Classic) examinations consist of a number of unprepared tasks in Speaking, Listening, Reading and Writing examinations, and one prepared task in the Speaking examination.

Twice per year, GA publishes up to 6 presentation tasks per level for Candidates to choose from. Candidates may choose any one of the tasks. The task requires Candidates to prepare a presentation about a topic, which they are expected to answer questions about in the examination.

The purpose of the prepared topic task is for Candidates to have the opportunity to demonstrate their English language skills by choosing a topic they are interested in and can feel confident talking about at some length.

Teachers and Candidates are encouraged to incorporate the chosen task topic into teaching and learning, exploring vocabulary, themes and relevant language items in preparing for the examination.

Although the presentation task is prepared, it is not acceptable for Candidates to bring any written prompt cards or notes into the examination room. Candidates may bring in props, i.e. pictures or objects, if they wish.

Language of Assessment

These qualifications are available in the English language only.

GA is committed to using English which is plain, clear free from bias, and appropriate to Candidates who are not native English users.

Use of Dictionaries

Monolingual (English-English) dictionaries are permitted in the Reading and Writing examinations.

Bi-lingual (translation), electronic dictionaries or other electronic resources are not permitted in any of the examinations.

Rules of Combination

In order to achieve the GA Certificate in ESOL International (Classic) qualification, Candidates must achieve all the mandatory units at the level entered for.

No further rules of combination will apply.

Recognition of Prior Learning, Exemption and Transfer of Credits

Recognition of prior learning (RPL) is a method of assessing whether a learner's previous experience and achievements meet the standard requirements of a GA Unit or Units, prior to the Candidate taking the assessment for the qualification, or part of the qualification, they are registered for.

Any prior learning must be relevant to the knowledge, skills and understanding which will be assessed as part of that qualification, and Gatehouse Awards will subsequently amend the requirements which a Candidate must have satisfied before they are assessed as eligible to be awarded the qualification.

Applications for RPL and/or exemption must be made directly to GA using the application form on the GA website.

These qualifications do not carry credits, therefore the transfer of credits is not applicable.

Relationship to Other Qualifications & Progression Opportunities

The qualifications are designed so that Candidates can progress from one level to the next as their skills improve.

Progression from Entry Level 1 (A1) achievement may include further English language courses to higher Entry Levels or Levels 1 – 3, or onto a range of vocational qualifications at Entry Level, Levels 1, 2 and above.

Progression from Levels 2 and 3 (C1 and C2) achievement may include further English language courses in specialist English or onto a range of vocational qualifications at Levels 2, 3 and above, including Higher Education programmes of learning.

Delivery Requirements & Quality Assurance Arrangements

Centre Approval Process

In order to offer the GA ESOL International (Classic) qualifications, Centres must hold Approved Centre status and approval for each individual qualification.

Full information about the Approval Criteria and how to apply can be found on the GA website.

Please note: arrangements outside the UK may vary from country to country. International Centres should contact GA directly for further information.

Teaching and Learning Requirements

GA does not prescribe the use of a set course book, workbook or recorded materials for the ESOL International (Classic) qualifications but expects that Centres providing English language courses should use relevant and up-to-date, high quality teaching materials which allow Candidates to apply their learning to real events and activities in everyday life, based upon their own experience.

Where Centres do offer English language courses leading to the qualifications, these can be full-time, part-time, evenings only or by distance/online learning as deemed appropriate in order to meet their learners' needs. There should be an emphasis upon providing learning activities which involve practical participation in language skills. Centres should develop an approach to teaching and learning that supports the practical nature of the GA ESOL International (Classic) qualifications.

Centres must ensure that Candidates have suitable access to the Centre, relevant Centre staff and any other resources including ESOL subject specialist staff and learning materials.

Centres should ensure that Candidates are entered for the level appropriate to their ability. GA recommends that Centres have a short pre-assessment with potential Candidates before determining whether or not it is appropriate to register them for a particular level examination.

Centres are provided with sample examination papers which may be used to assist in preparing Candidates for examinations. These are publicly available on the GA website and so, even where a Centre chooses not to offer any preparatory courses, it is recommended that they point these out to their Candidates so that they might undertake some self-preparation prior to the examination.

Learning programmes and teaching approaches should take into account some or all of the following:

- learners' short term goals and the contexts in which they need to use English
- learners' educational and employment aspirations
- learners' wider need for skills such as IT, study skills, job-search or specific subject skills
- the local community context
- techniques for teaching mixed-level groups and groups of learners with mixed educational backgrounds

- techniques for teaching learners whose listening and speaking skills are higher or lower than their reading/writing skills ('spiky profiles')
- communicative language teaching, including ways of working with learners who do not share a language with the teacher
- cross-cultural approaches which draw on learners' knowledge of other languages and/or cultures
- strategies for tackling learning difficulties such as dyslexia
- the need to move forward towards independence
- the effects of any personal circumstances on Candidate's level of motivation and style of learning.

Staff Resources: Teaching Staff

Whilst GA does not require all Centres to also run English language teaching courses or employ dedicated English language teachers, where Centres do so, GA recommends that staff employed as teachers are able to demonstrate the following competencies:

- must have reached near-native competence or be a native English speaker
- must have recent experience of teaching English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) or English as a Foreign Language (EFL)
- must hold a recognised teaching qualification or, for new tutors, be working towards a relevant teaching qualification.

Staff Resources: Interlocutors and Invigilation Staff

In order to conduct the GA ESOL International (Classic) examinations, Centres must nominate an Interlocutor and an Invigilator. This may be the same person, but should not be the Candidate's teacher, relative, or anyone else from the Centre who is known personally to the Candidate other than via the Centre's professional operations (please refer to the GA Conflict of Interest Policy and Procedure for more information).

The Interlocutor is the member of staff who will conduct the Speaking examination (combined with Listening at Entry Levels / A1 and A2).

The Invigilator is the member of staff who will oversee the Reading and Writing examinations (and Listening examinations at Entry Level 3 and above / B1 – C2).

It is important to note that GA ESOL International (Classic) examinations are marked by GA appointed and trained examiners. Centre staff should therefore NOT refer to themselves as examiners, markers or assessors of these qualifications.

Centres must ensure that any all personnel employed in the roles of Interlocutor and Invigilator meet the GA guidelines (see below) and that their details are provided to GA upon request.

GA recognises that a high level English teaching qualification does not automatically qualify someone to be a good Interlocutor and as there are no specific qualifications available for Interlocutors, GA does not stipulate minimum qualification levels for such staff. Gatehouse Awards have, however, adopted the following guidelines:

The Interlocutor:

- must have reached near-native competence or be a native English speaker
- must be able to use English to the level that allows the Candidate to fulfil all the tasks in the examination
- should NOT be the Candidate's own English language teacher.

Centres are responsible for ensuring that all Interlocutors and Invigilators maintain the standards required by GA. Failure to do so may affect Centre or Qualification Approval status.

Staff Resources: General

Centres must ensure that they hold up-to-date and detailed information about the staff involved with the delivery, and must make records available to GA upon request. The information GA expects Centres to hold for each member of staff includes:

- a current up to date CV
- copies of relevant qualification certificates
- a relevant and up to date CPD (Continuous Professional Development) Record
- a completed Conflict of Interest declaration (where applicable)

Centres must also ensure that they have the management and administrative arrangements in place which are suitable to support the registration, qualification delivery and assessment of Candidates.

Venue Requirements

Centres must ensure that a suitable examination room is provided which is appropriate and does not disadvantage or advantage Candidates in any way. A quiet room, which is adequately heated, with desks, chairs and the required equipment, must be available in order to conduct the GA ESOL International (Classic) examinations. The examination room must be large enough to seat the number of Candidates attending the examination session, whilst maintaining a minimum distance of 1.25 metres between each Candidate.

For the Speaking examination, Centres may use a smaller examination room as only two Candidates take the examination at any one time. Although GA recommends desks and chairs, it is acceptable to use chairs with flip-over trays or clipboards for Candidates.

Centres must also ensure that a suitable waiting area is provided for Candidates to be seated prior to their examinations. This waiting area should be supervised at all times and Candidates should not re-enter this waiting area after their examinations. This stipulation is in order to minimise the potential for Candidate collusion, cheating or other forms of malpractice.

Centres must also ensure that the premises have suitable access, in line with Disability Discrimination and Diversity & Equality law and regulations and any other local laws and regulations which apply.

Equipment Requirements

Centres must ensure that the following resources are available:

- IT facilities to enable access to the GA website
- Access to email
- Scanner and printer / photocopier
- CD player or facilities to play digital audio recordings
- Digital audio recorder and video recorder
- Sufficient IT resources to enable back up of all audio recording of the Speaking examinations for a minimum period of 2 years after the examination date.
- Secure storage facilities for the storage of examination materials prior to and immediately after an examination session
- Facilities to securely destroy unused examination papers and to destroy completed Candidate scripts at the appropriate time, e.g. a shredder machine.

Registering Candidates and Booking Examination Sessions

To register Candidates and book examination sessions, Centres must use the Ark. This is the GA online learner management system. Each approved GA Centre is provided with user accounts to allow approved staff access to the system.

In the UK, examination sessions must be booked a minimum of 2 days prior to the proposed examination date. All examinations must be conducted at the venue indicated at the time of booking.

Detailed information relating to the registration and exam bookings procedures can be found in the Ark Guide and FAQ, published on the GA website.

Arrangements for examination bookings may vary outside the UK. International Centres should contact GA directly for further information about the exam booking requirements.

ID Requirements

It is the responsibility of each GA Approved Centre to have systems in place to ensure that the person taking any GA ESOL International (Classic) qualification is indeed the person they are purporting to be. All Centres are therefore required to ensure that each Candidate's original formal identification documents are checked and recorded prior to registration and copies remain in the Centre's files. Centres are required to keep copies of the photographic ID in their records for a minimum of 2 years.

Candidates must bring their identification documents on the day of the examination and the Centre must check each Candidate's ID to confirm their identity. Candidates attending without sufficient proof of their identity must not be permitted to take the examination.

At the end of the examination session, a Centre staff member must ensure that a copy of the identification document is included in the submission package which is returned to Gatehouse Awards containing all examination materials.

Regulations for Conducting Controlled Examinations

All GA ESOL International (Classic) examinations must be delivered under controlled examination conditions. Centres must ensure that all staff have access to and are familiar with the GA Regulations for Conducting Controlled Examinations document, which can be found on the GA website.

Examination Materials

Examination materials will be made available to the Centre by secure online access a short time before the scheduled examination session start time. Materials accessed online must be printed by the Centre, stored securely in order to ensure the security of the materials and only handed to Candidates immediately prior to the commencement of the examination.

Examination materials will be clearly marked to enable Centres to confirm that the version of assessment materials is correct for the particular Candidate / cohort of Candidates, as appropriate. Specific versions of examination materials for use will be issued for each scheduled session.

Examination Materials for these qualifications consist of:

- Interlocutor Booklet
- Candidate Materials for Speaking (two versions – Candidate A and Candidate B)
- Candidate Booklet – Listening
- Candidate Booklet – Reading
- Candidate Booklet - Writing
- Audio recordings for the Listening examination
- Candidate Instructions and Declaration
- Examination Report Form

For the Speaking examination (and Listening at Entry Levels 1 and 2), an audio and video recording is made. Only the audio recording will be submitted to GA via the secure online portal and a video recording of each examination should be kept on file as part of the Centre's learner records and for the purposes of both Internal and External Quality Assurance.

The Reading and Writing examinations (and Listening at Entry Level 3 and above) are assessed via separate paper-based examinations. All paper-based examination materials, as well as copies of the audio recordings, must be uploaded to GA within a maximum of two working days of the examination.

Should a Centre wish to return the examination materials via postal service, prior agreement must be sought from GA. In such cases, the examination materials must be despatched within a maximum of 2 working days using a secure courier system.

Examination papers are NOT assessed by Centre staff or by the GA Examination Observers (where present).

All records of Candidate's papers, recordings, and copies of their identification documents will be kept securely by GA for a minimum period of 5 years.

Candidate to Interlocutor / Invigilator Ratios

Entry Level 1 and 2 Speaking and Listening examinations and Speaking examinations at Entry Level 3 and above are conducted with two Candidates and the Interlocutor present.

It is possible for trainee Interlocutors and/or the Centre's internal quality assurance managers to be present in the room; however GA strongly recommends that the number of people present in the examination room is kept to a minimum. Any additional personnel must be declared on the Examination Report Form, and they must state their name at the appropriate point in the script.

The Reading and Writing examinations at all levels (and Listening at Entry Level 3 and above) must be invigilated by a Centre-appointed Invigilator. The minimum ratio of Invigilators per Candidates is 1:12. This means that one Invigilator can supervise no more than 12 Candidates.

The Invigilator must have a means of communicating with another member of staff also trained in the invigilation procedure and present on the premises, should their assistance be required in an emergency situation. The Invigilator should be able to summon their assistance without leaving the examination room.

Record Keeping

All materials, including the audio and video recordings, must be kept securely within the Centre. Once Centres have completed examinations and submitted copies to GA for marking, paper based records must be kept in a physical secure storage areas such as a locked filing cabinet. Electronic recordings such as audio and video should be stored securely on a local machine, server (where access is granted to authorised personnel only) or removable device (stored in a secure location).

Any records of Reasonable Adjustments, Special Considerations and records containing Candidate's personal details must be held in line with the Data Protection Act 1998.

All records must be kept for a minimum period of two years, be easily retrievable, and made accessible to GA or the Regulators upon request.

Results and Certification

Once Centres have submitted the examination materials, all examination papers and recordings are marked by the GA ESOL International (Classic) Examiners. The results are available for authorised Centre staff to view on the Ark.

In the UK, standard examination results and certificates are issued within 10 working days of the receipt of a full and correct submission of the examination materials.

For Emergency examinations conducted in the UK, results are issued within 3 working days of the receipt of a full and correct submission of the examination materials.

Outside the UK, the timescales when results and certificates will be issued may vary. These will be agreed with the Centre at the time of Qualification Approval. Overseas Centres are responsible for informing Candidates of the certification timescales. Candidates should refer directly to the overseas Centre or the overseas GA Representative to access this information in-country.

For results enquiries, Centres are asked to contact their named Centre Administrator. Such enquiries should only be submitted in instances where the timescales for issuing results and certificates as outlined above have been exceeded.

Certificates will automatically be issued to Candidates who have met the requirements for the full qualification they are registered for. If a Candidate has failed one or more units, a Notification of Results will be issued informing the Candidate of which units they have achieved / not achieved.

Unit certificates for individual units can be issued on request.

Direct Claims Status (DCS)

The GA ESOL International (Classic) qualifications are externally assessed and externally moderated. Direct Claims Status is therefore not available for these qualifications.

Enquiries and Appeals

GA operates an Appeals Policy and Procedure in accordance with the arrangements for regulated qualifications.

Candidates wishing to appeal should use the Centre's internal Appeals Policy and Procedure prior to appealing directly to GA.

Centres wishing to appeal against any decision or action which arises from external assessment and/or moderation activity should do so in line with the content of the GA Appeals Policy and Procedure.

Examination Re-sits

A Candidate who is assessed as not having achieved the qualification or unit should be advised to wait until they have progressed to a sufficient degree before they re-sit the examination(s).

Re-sit examinations should be booked via the Ark.

Candidates who re-sit the examinations will be provided with different examination materials to those used previously. These will be made available on the Ark to authorised Centre staff.

Quality Assurance Requirements

GA is committed to providing a high level of quality assurance for the ESOL International (Classic) qualifications, including a thorough Centre and qualification approval process, external assessment and moderation and visits to Centres to conduct quality assurance monitoring and conduct observations of examination sessions.

Examination Observations & Visits to Centres

External Quality Assurance activities will involve observations of examination sessions, discussions with Centre staff and, where appropriate, with Candidates. These activities will focus on ensuring that the Centre continues to meet the Centre approval criteria and that:

- the management arrangements at the Centre are sufficient
- staff and physical resources are in place and sufficient
- the Centre has appropriate policies and procedures in place
- suitable arrangements are implemented to ensure the security of assessment materials
- the assessment and internal quality assurance arrangements are sufficient
- record keeping and administrative arrangements meet requirements
- any actions have been carried out by the Centre

Through the above activities, GA will provide Centres with support, advice and guidance relating to the delivery, assessment and quality assurance of these qualifications.

Additional support visits can be requested, for which there may be an additional charge.

Ongoing Support

There are a number of documents on the GA website that Centres and Candidates may find useful: www.gatehouseawards.org

The website is updated regularly with news, information about all GA qualifications, sample examination materials, updates on regulations and other important notices for Centres and Candidates.

Within the Centre, a named Examinations Officer is responsible for ensuring that all information and documents provided to Centre staff and Candidates are correct and up to date.

GA must be kept up to date with contact details so Centres can be provided with the best level of support and guidance. Contact details for GA are:

Gatehouse Awards Ltd
Address: 3rd Floor, Oaktree House, 408 Oakwood Lane, Leeds, LS8 3LG
Tel: 0113 249 1000

Email: info@gatehouseawards.org
Web: www.gatehouseawards.org

At the time of approval, Centres are assigned a designated GA Centre Administrator who is their primary point of contact for all aspects of service or support. Candidates should always speak to a member of staff at the Centre for information relating to GA and the ESOL International (Classic) qualifications prior to approaching GA directly.

Syllabi & Examination Specification

GA Entry Level Certificate in ESOL International (Classic A1)

Examinations Overview

The GA Entry Level Certificate in ESOL International (A1) consists of three examinations:

Examination	No. of Tasks	Task 1 Type	Task 2 Type	Task 3 Type	Task 4 Type	Time Allowed
Speaking and Listening	4	Listening activity	Talking about the prepared topic	Reacting in 3 described situations	Conversation	Approx. 15 minutes per 2 Candidates
Reading	3	6 x multiple choice (ABC gap fill)	8 x multiple choice questions (ABC)	8 x matching statements to texts	N/A	30 minutes
Writing	3	Candidate completes a simple form	Candidate writes a short text (minimum 40 words)	Candidate chooses one topic (of 2) to write about (minimum 40 words)	N/A	30 minutes

A1 Text Types

At this level, Candidates are expected to read and understand short texts with repeated language patterns on these familiar topics, and read and obtain information from common signs and symbols in texts such as:

- public signs and notices
- lists
- simple forms
- notes
- records
- simple narratives

The words Candidates need to read will depend on their reasons for reading, e.g. employment, college course, childcare, enjoyment. The following are examples of words a Candidate would typically be expected to be able to read at this level:

Personal Key Words

- Country of origin, e.g. The United Arab Emirates, Brazil, Mozambique
- Languages, e.g. Portuguese
- Names, addresses, telephone numbers, dates

Topic-based Vocabulary

- Days of the week
- Months of the year
- Words on forms: name, address, telephone number, date, country, signature etc.
- Family members, e.g. Sister, mother
- Words on menus, e.g. Tea, coffee
- Everyday vocabulary, e.g. Appointment, sale

Social Sight Vocabulary

- Danger
- Toilets
- Exit
- Way in
- Way out
- Office
- Reception
- No Smoking
- Right, left

High-Frequency Words

A, an, the, of, to, in, on, off, out, from, with, there, is, are, am, has, have, work, live, like, want, speak, going, shopping, go, can, come, I, she, he, we, they, no, not, me, my, and, but

At this level, Candidates are expected to write to communicate information to an intended audience in documents such as:

- Forms
- Lists
- Messages
- Notes
- Records

Spelling

It is important for adult ESOL learners to be able to recognise the basic sound–symbol relationships and common letter patterns in words that are of real interest to them as individuals, working from a context. The order in which these sounds and patterns will be taught will depend on the words learners want and need to write.

Phonics (sound–letter correspondence)

- Recognise initial, middle and final consonants
- Recognise consonant digraphs ch, sh, the
- Recognise medial short vowel sounds in simple words, e.g. Hat
- Write correct initial letters in response to the letter sound, word, object or picture
- Recognise and name each letter of the alphabet and be aware of alphabetical order
- Write final consonants in simple words, e.g. Shop
- Write correct letter corresponding to short middle vowel sounds in simple words, e.g. Hat

Patterns

Some suggestions for taking common patterns from texts learners want or need to write:

“I live in Southwark. Southwark is in south London. I live in a big house.”

Other words with ou – our, four, pour. Learners are encouraged to group the words visually, and/or by sound.

Examination Specification: A1

Overview of the A1 Speaking & Listening Examination

The total guide time for the Speaking and Listening examination is 15 minutes, including an introduction read by the Interlocutor. There are 4 tasks in total.

The Speaking and Listening examination takes place with two Candidates and the Interlocutor present.

Successful A1 Candidates will demonstrate the following competencies across the examination:

- interact in a simple way, participate in simple conversation
- initiate and respond to simple statements and questions
- produce simple mainly isolated phrases to describe people and places
- follow slow and carefully articulated speech
- understand instructions and follow simple directions
- show control of a few simple grammatical structures and sentence patterns
- use a basic vocabulary repertoire of isolated words and phrases related to particular concrete situations
- pronounce a very limited repertoire of learnt words and phrases which can be understood with some effort by native speakers used to dealing with speakers of his/her language group

Candidates' performance is assessed in three categories:

1) Discrete Listening – in other words, how accurately they responded to each question in the listening activity.

2) Task Achievement – in other words, how well they used the language to respond to each task.

3) Overall Linguistic Competency – in other words, how well they use vocabulary, grammar, phonological control and fluency in their response to each task.

Discrete Listening is assessed separately for each individual question. The maximum number of marks that can be achieved in this category is 8 marks.

Within Task Achievement, Candidates receive a score per task based on their performance. The maximum number of marks that can be achieved in this category is 12.

Within Overall Linguistic Competency, Candidates receive a score per task based on their performance. The maximum number of marks that can be achieved in this category is 16.

Content of the A1 Speaking & Listening Examination

A1 Speaking and Listening Examination (total time: approximately 15 minutes)
Task	Summary	Approx. Timings
Task 1: Listening activity	Each Candidate listens to a recorded passage, e.g. an answerphone message or person introducing him/herself, and answers one gist and three detail questions each. Example passage: Hi Mum, it's Tom here. We are having a dinner party tomorrow night and I hope you can come. We will have a nice meal and Anna is cooking your favourite – chicken. We will start at 7 o'clock. See you tomorrow! Example questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Is this message an invitation?</li> <li>• What time does the party start?</li> </ul>	5 minutes for two Candidates
Task 2: Talking about the prepared topic	The topics are published in advance to allow Candidates to prepare for this task. In turn, each Candidate talks about their topic for up to one minute. Candidates must ask and answer one question from each other and answer one question each from the interlocutor. Example topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• My English class</li> <li>• Where I live</li> <li>• My hobby</li> </ul>	4 minutes for two Candidates
Task 3: Reacting in described situations	The Candidates respond with one or two full sentences for each situation presented to them. Candidates respond to three situations each. Example situation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You are in a shop and need to buy some bread and milk. What do you say?</li> <li>• Your friend wants to go to the cinema this weekend, but you have other plans. What do you say?</li> </ul>	4 minutes for two Candidates
Task 4: Conversation	The Candidates take part in a three-way conversation, led by the interlocutor. Visual prompts are provided. Example conversation starter: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• I really like pizza – I have it every week. How about you?</li> </ul>	3 minutes for two Candidates

Overview of the A1 Reading Examination

The total time allowed for the Reading examination is 30 minutes. There are 3 tasks in total.

The Reading examination is completed under the supervision of an Invigilator, under controlled examination conditions. The Examination may be conducted with one or multiple Candidates at the same time.

Candidates are allowed access to a monolingual (English – English) dictionary.

Successful A1 Candidates will demonstrate the following competencies across the examination:

- Can recognise familiar names, words and very basic phrases on simple notices in the most common everyday situations
- Can get an idea of the content of simpler informational material and short simple descriptions, especially if there is visual support
- Can understand short, simple messages

Candidates' performance in this examination is assessed based on the number of correct answers they chose in each task. All of the questions across the assessment tasks are equally weighted.

Content of the A1 Reading Examination

A1 Reading Examination (time allowed: 30 minutes)
Task	Summary	Marks Available
Task 1: Gap fill	The Candidates read six sentences which each contain a gap. They choose the most suitable word to complete the sentence from a choice of three options ABC.	6
Task 2: Short continuous text	The Candidates read a short continuous text, and answer 8 multiple choice ABC questions based on the content of the text.	8
Task 3: Three short texts	The Candidates read three separate texts on the same topic and match 8 statements or questions to the most appropriate text.	8
Total Marks Available in the Reading Examination: 22

Overview of the A1 Writing Examination

The total time allowed for the Writing examination is 30 minutes. There are 3 tasks in total.

The Writing examination is completed under the supervision of an Invigilator, under controlled examination conditions. The Examination may be conducted with one or multiple Candidates at the same time.

Candidates are allowed access to a monolingual (English – English) dictionary.

Successful A1 Candidates will demonstrate the following competencies across the examination:

- Can write a short simple postcard
- Can write numbers and dates, own name, nationality, address, age, date of birth or arrival in the country etc., such as on a hotel registration form
- Can write simple phrases and sentences about themselves and imaginary people, where they live and what they do.
- Can use a basic repertoire of words and simple phrases related to personal details and particular concrete situations
- Can show a limited control of a few simple grammatical structures and sentence patterns
- Can write in full sentences using appropriate punctuation

Candidates' performance is assessed across two categories:

1) Recording Information – in Task 1, one mark is allocated for every appropriate answer. Candidates are not penalised for spelling mistakes unless the error detracts from the message.

The maximum number of marks that can be achieved in this category is 8 marks.

2) Overall Linguistic Competency – in Tasks 2 and 3, marks are allocated according to how well the Candidate addresses each task, and how well they use vocabulary, grammar, structure, punctuation, spelling and legibility in their response to each task.

The maximum number of marks that can be achieved in this category is 30.

Content of the A1 Writing Examination

A1 Writing Examination (time allowed: 30 minutes)
Task	Summary
Task 1: Simple form	Candidates are given a simple form to complete in this task. The form will require them to record their personal details, e.g. name, address, nationality and answer one or two simple questions, e.g. 'how long will you stay?' on a hotel booking form.
Task 2: Short text	Candidates are required to produce a short text, e.g. postcard, to a friend or person they are familiar with. They are given four pieces of information that need to be included in the message. The main purpose of this task is to assess the Candidate's ability to write a short message which covers all required points. Word Count: The Candidate is expected to produce a minimum of 40 words.
Task 3: Short text	Candidates are given a choice of two different options in this task. The Candidate must choose one option and produce a short text, typically about themselves and other people, where they live and what they do. Word Count: The Candidate is expected to produce a minimum of 40 words.

Examinations Overview

The GA Entry Level Certificate in ESOL International (A2) consists of three examinations:

Examination	No. of Tasks	Task 1 Type	Task 2 Type	Task 3 Type	Task 4 Type	Time Allowed
Speaking and Listening	4	Listening activity	Talking about the prepared topic	Short role-plays	Conversation	Approx. 20 minutes per 2 Candidates

A2 Text Types

At level A2, Candidates will encounter topics which are both familiar and relevant to them as learners of English. These will include:

- Family Life
- Hobbies and Pastimes
- Personal details / experiences
- Holidays
- Leisure Activities
- Shopping
- Work and Jobs
- Health
- Education and Training
- Services
- Weather
- Transport

At this level, Candidates are expected to read and understand short texts with repeated language patterns on these familiar topics, reading and obtaining information from common signs and symbols in texts such as:

- Public signs and notices
- Lists
- Simple forms
- Notes
- Records
- Emails
- Letters
- Diagrams
- Simple narratives

The words Candidates need to read will depend on their reasons for reading, e.g. employment, college course, childcare, enjoyment. The following are examples of words a Candidate would typically be expected to be able to read at this level:

High.-Frequency Words

At this level, Candidates are expected to write to communicate information with some awareness of the intended audience in documents such as:

- Forms
- Lists
- Messages
- Notes
- Records
- Emails
- Simple narratives

Spelling

It is important for adult ESOL learners to be able to recognise the sound–symbol relationship and common letter patterns in words that are of real interest to them as individuals, working from a context. The order in which these sounds and patterns will be taught will depend on the words learners want and need to write. Learners whose first language does not have the same phonemes as English will have difficulty in recognising the sound and therefore the associated symbol.

Phonics

At this level, learners should recognise and use a wider range of phonics:

- Initial common clusters: bl (black), br (brown), cl (close), cr (cream), dr (drink), fl (fly), fr (friend), gl (glass), gr (grill), pl (place), pr (Prime Minister), scr (scream), sk (skin), sl (sleep), sm (smile), sp (spell), squ (squash), st (stop), str (street), tr (train), tw (twins), thr (through)
- Common final clusters: ct (fact), ft (lift), ld (build), lt (melt), nch (lunch), lth (health), nd (second), nt (sent), lk (milk), lp (help), mp (lamp), nk (think), rd (heard), sk (task), sp (crisp), st (first) xt (next)
- Vowel digraphs: ee (feet), ea (seat), oo (moon), u–e (tune), ew (flew), ue (blue)
- Diphthongs: ie (lie), ai (train), a–e (name), ay (play), i–e (bite), igh (high), y (fly), ow (cow), ou (sound)

Word Structure

At this level, learners should recognise and use:

- Letter patterns common in English, e.g.: tion (station)
- Silent letters, e.g. lght (light), wr (write), ould (could), lk (talk)
- Prefixes and suffixes, e.g. Un (unhappy), re (return), less (helpless)
- Structural endings, e.g. Plurals, ed (walked), ing (cooking)

C2 Text Types

At Level 3 (C2), Candidates are expected to have reached a near native level of proficiency in English and as such there is no definitive list of text types for this level.

Candidates will encounter texts which are both familiar and relevant to them as learners of English as well as texts that are technical, abstract and unfamiliar to them, including classic and contemporaneous literary works.

The Candidate is able to understand with ease virtually everything heard or read and be able to summarise from different spoken and written sources, reconstructing arguments and accounts and presenting them coherently.

At this level, the Candidate is expected to be able to express him/herself spontaneously, very fluently and precisely and be able to differentiate finer shades of meaning even in complex situations in both written and spoken form.

C2 Language Specification

At Level 3 (C2), Candidates are expected to have reached a near native level of proficiency in English and as such there is no definitive list of grammar, functions and structures at this level.

The Language Specification table for level C1 can be used as a basis of initially assessing a Candidate's ability prior to undertaking a course of study at Level 3 (C2). Candidates should be able to demonstrate a mastery of the language and be able to manipulate the language in order to respond to both explicit and implied meanings in a wide variety of contexts and settings which may be unfamiliar to them.

At this level, Candidates should express themselves appropriately and accurately for the intended purpose with ease, in the reception, interaction and production of language.

C2 Communicative Functions & Notions

The C2 Candidate will be able to successfully perform all of the communicative functions and notions as provided for level C1 above; AND

- have no difficulty in understanding any kind of spoken language, even when delivered at fast, native speed
- read with ease virtually all forms of written language, including abstract, structurally or linguistically complex texts such as manuals, specialised articles and literary works
- effortlessly take part in conversation and discussion and have a good familiarity with idiomatic expressions and colloquialisms, expressing him/herself fluently and conveying finer shades of meaning
- backtrack and re-structure around any difficulties so smoothly that other people are hardly aware of it
- express him/herself with clarity and precision, relating to the addressee flexibly and in an assured, personal style
- present clear, smoothly-flowing descriptions or arguments in a style appropriate to the context and with effective logical structures which help recipients to notice and remember significant points
- write clear, smoothly-flowing text in an appropriate style, including complex letters, reports or articles, and can present a case with an effective logical structure which helps recipients to notice and remember significant points
- write summaries and reviews of professional or literary works

C2 Key Language Items

At Level 3 (C2), Candidates are expected to have reached a near native level of proficiency in English and as such there is no definitive list of key language items at this level.

The Key Language Items table provided for level C1 can be used as a basis of initially assessing a Candidate's ability prior to undertaking a course of study at Level 3 (C2).

Candidates should be able to demonstrate a mastery of all these key language items and be able to manipulate the language in order to respond to both explicit and implied meanings in a wide variety of contexts and settings which may be unfamiliar to them.

At this level, Candidates should express themselves appropriately and accurately for the intended purpose with ease, in the reception, interaction and production of language.

General Guidelines: Conducting Examinations

Centres must adhere to the Interlocutor and Invigilator instructions throughout the examination session(s).

The Speaking component at all levels must be conducted with two Candidates present, with only the Candidates and Interlocutor engaging in the examination tasks.

The Reading and Writing examinations at all levels (and Listening at Entry Level 3 and above) may be conducted on a one-to-one basis or with a group of Candidates in one session. If Centres wish to conduct group examinations, they must ensure that the room meets minimum requirements as listed in the published Gatehouse Awards Regulations for Conducting Controlled Assessments.

The timings provided for all examinations must be adhered to.

Any recordings or papers submitted to Gatehouse Awards where the Interlocutor, Invigilator or any other member of Centre staff has not followed the regulations provided may be considered a form of maladministration. Please refer to the Gatehouse Awards 'Malpractice and Maladministration Policy' for further details.

Conducting Speaking Examinations

The Interlocutor Booklet provides full guidance for the conduct of the Speaking tasks. An audio and video recording must be made as a record of the Candidate's performance in these tasks.

Printed Candidate Materials must only be provided to the Candidate at the appropriate point indicated in the Interlocutor Booklet. Instructions appear on the cover of the printed materials. Candidates should sign where indicated.

Candidates are examined in pairs.

Where there are an odd number of Candidates in a given examination session, a Candidate who has already been assessed can reappear. In order to ensure that no Candidate is disadvantaged in such a scenario, the Candidate who is reappearing would not be assessed on their performance. Interlocutors should clearly identify on the audio / video recording any Candidate who is not being assessed in the task.

The examination times are guide times.

Conducting Listening, Reading, and Writing Examinations

The Reading, and Writing examinations at all levels and the Listening examination at Entry Level 3 and above consist of paper-based examinations, which must be kept securely and provided to the Candidate only at the commencement of the examination session. Instructions appear on the cover of the printed materials.

Audio recordings for the Listening tasks at Entry Level 3 and above are provided as digital MP3 files to play to Candidates during the Listening tasks.

The examinations times must adhere to.

Where groups of Candidates are taking the Listening, Reading, or Writing assessments together, the ratio of Candidates to Invigilator must not exceed 12 to 1. This means that one Invigilator can supervise no more than 12 Candidates.

Assessment and Grading Information

Speaking Examinations

In the Speaking examinations at all levels, Candidates are assessed on their skills in the areas of:

- Communicative Effectiveness

and/or (at B1 and above)

- Overall Linguistic Competency

For Communicative Effectiveness, each task is assessed separately. Candidates are assessed on their ability to complete the given task and use spoken communication effectively and appropriately.

For Overall Linguistic Competency, the Candidate's overall performance is assessed, across the following categories:

- Vocabulary Range: the Candidate's lexical repertoire.
- Vocabulary Control: the Candidate's ability to use lexical choices appropriately.

The total number of marks available in Writing at Entry Level 3 and above (B1-C2) is 55.

Overall Assessment Decisions

Completed scripts and audio recordings are externally marked and moderated by GA's team of ESOL International Examiners and Moderators.

In order to achieve the overall qualification at the level entered for, a 'Pass' is required for each examination. This will give the Candidate a grading reflecting the level achieved.

Gatehouse Awards markers apply a mark scheme to each examination. The criteria have been mapped to the level descriptors in the CEFR scales.

Successful Candidates will be awarded a 'Pass' or a 'Pass with Merit'. This grading will appear on the qualification certificate.

In order to achieve a Pass

In order to achieve the qualification at any given level, Candidates must achieve the minimum overall pass mark of 55% across the four examinations.

In order to achieve a Pass with Merit

In order to achieve the qualification and be awarded a Pass with Merit at any given level, Candidates must achieve the minimum overall pass mark of 75% across the four examinations.

Unit Certification

Candidates achieving in excess of 55% in any single examination may apply for unit certification.

Hints and Tips for Candidates

Candidates should read the following advice in preparation for the examinations.

In the Speaking examination...

- try to relax and enjoy speaking in English! Practice asking and answering questions and having full conversations and discussions in English as much as you can at home.
- you can even record or video yourself practising speaking English! This is a great way to develop your pronunciation and listening skills at the same time.
- try to talk as much as you can and make sure you speak in full sentences, developing your answer when you can. Remember – one word answers don't demonstrate what you can really do.
- always listen carefully to the questions and to what others are saying. It's fine to ask the Interlocutor or other Candidate to repeat themselves if you didn't quite understand the first time.
- don't learn prepared answers to any questions – even the presentation. You'll be asked questions about your presentation, but you won't know what they will be!
- during the prepared presentation, listen carefully to the other Candidate speaking. Make some notes if it helps and make sure you ask questions at the end, avoiding questions that have already been answered.
- try to express your opinions and own ideas - you won't lose marks by disagreeing with the Interlocutor!

In the Reading and Listening examinations...

- start by carefully reading the instructions for each task.
- if you find a question very difficult, move on to the next one and come back to it later.
- in multiple choice tasks, quickly read the questions first. This will give you an idea what the topic of the text or recording is!
- remember, all the questions only have 1 correct answer!
- if at the end of the exam you are still not sure about some answers, choose the ones that you feel fit best.
- if you really don't know the answer, have a guess – there are no minus marks for wrong answers!
- make sure your final answers are clearly marked – if the marker is not sure what answer you chose, you will not get any marks.
- try to relax – you don't have to answer every single question correctly to pass!

In the Listening examination...

- you will have some time to read the questions in each task before you hear the listening for the first time. Try to read all the questions and all the possible answers.
- you will hear the recording twice, so if you don't know all the answers the first time, you will have another chance.
- even if you think you got all your answers right the first time, listen to the recording a second time to make sure you got it right.
- you should be able to hear the recordings loud and clear. If you don't, tell the invigilator straight away!

In the Reading examination...

- start with the reading task you feel most comfortable with.
- don't use your dictionary to check the meaning of every word you don't understand or are not sure about – you will run out of time to complete the exam.
- remember, all reading questions only have 1 correct answer!
- don't answer any questions without reading the text. You might think you know the answer, but you could be wrong. Always check with the reading text!
- keep an eye on the time - try to allow 5 minutes before the end of the examination time to go back and check through your answers.

In the Writing examination...

- spend 5 minutes reading all the questions. Choose the questions you feel more comfortable answering – all the questions have the same number of marks.
- read the question carefully before you start writing. Make sure you answer the exact question in the paper to get the maximum number of marks!
- think about what you are going to write before you start and plan it in your head or on paper.
- spend about half of your time on Task 1, and the other half on Task 2.
- try to save about 5 minutes at the end to check both of your answers for spelling and grammar mistakes.
- you don't have to follow the order of tasks in the paper – you can start with the question you find easier.

Access to Assessment, Special Considerations and Reasonable Adjustments

GA examination materials are designed to be inclusive, non-discriminatory and as accessible as possible. Gatehouse Awards adhere to these principles throughout the development of all qualifications and throughout the writing of assessment and examination materials. Please note the differing definitions of Reasonable Adjustment and a Special Consideration, as outlined in the GA Candidate Access Policy document (available on the GA website).

Centre staff need to ensure that any requests for reasonable adjustments where prior authorisation from GA is required are submitted in good time prior to the examination date, otherwise the Candidate's results may be withheld and the Candidate may have to re-sit the examination. Such requests should be communicated to GA by submitting a Request for Reasonable Adjustment Form (available as an Appendix to the Candidate Access Policy) a minimum of 10 working days prior to the date of the examination.

Candidates requesting reasonable adjustments must provide their Centre with evidence of their medical condition or learning needs and a copy of this must be provided to GA with the request form, if applicable, or upon request as part of external quality assurance activities. .

The following are examples of conditions which may constitute a situation where possible reasonable adjustments can be applied in order for a Candidate to undertake the ESOL International assessments. Please note that this list is not exhaustive:

Candidates with Visual Impairment

GA can support the use of:

- large print or Braille examination materials
- coloured paper or overlays
- extra time allocated for the examination
- a professional reader/scribe in the speaking and listening examinations, to facilitate the completion of the examination paper
- a professional scribe in the reading examination to facilitate the completion of the examination paper (not a reader)
- an audio recording of the Listening examination

Candidates with Hearing Impairment

GA can support the use of:

- hearing aids/hearing induction loops
- extra time allocated for the examination

Candidates with Learning Difficulties

GA can support the use of:

- examination papers printed on different coloured paper/different coloured ink
- extra time allocated to the examination
- a professional reader/scribe in the speaking and listening examination to facilitate the completion of the examination paper
- a professional scribe in the reading examination to facilitate the completion of the examination paper (not a reader)
- an audio recording of the Listening examination tasks (which may be applicable to learners with very low levels of literacy and reading skills)

Examples of adjustments GA cannot support within the context of ESOL International qualifications include:

- the use of a translator or interpreter
- translations of examination materials into any other language apart from English
- the use of BSL (British Sign Language) for any aspect of the examinations
- allowing Candidates to have sight of examination materials prior to the examination session (except where explicitly permitted by GA, e.g. the Prepared Presentation in the speaking examination)
- the use of any (English or bilingual) dictionaries, except where permitted in the examination instructions
- a reader for the reading examination
- a scribe for the writing examination

The above adjustments are not allowed due to the nature of the assessment criteria.

A Special Consideration is given to a Candidate who has temporarily experienced an event outside of their control which has had, or is reasonably likely to have had, a material effect on that Candidate's ability to take an examination or demonstrate his or her level of attainment in an examination.

Examples of events that attract special consideration would be:

- temporary illness*
- injury*
- bereavement
- fire or similar emergency during the examination
- building work/loud noise at the examination Centre
- failure of equipment during the examination
- failure of the Centre to implement a requested reasonable adjustments, or the reasonable adjustments put in place are unworkable or incorrect

*For Illness and Injury, arrangements as for disabilities would be put into place. However, medical evidence (such as a doctor or hospital letter) would be required to support such arrangements.

Centres must complete the Record of Reasonable Adjustments / Special Considerations Form in order to record the decisions made by the Centre. A copy of the form should be retained by Centres along with and supporting evidence or other relevant records for audit purposes.

Centres should refer to the GA Candidate Access Policy for full details of how to apply for Reasonable Adjustments and Special Considerations.
