Part A

Robert:	Hello, Robert speaking?
Jill:	Hi Robert, it's Jill. I'm calling to tell you that I have finally moved into the new house!
Robert:	That's great news. Congratulations! How is it?
Jill:	Oh, it's wonderful. Would you like to come and see it?
Robert:	I'd love to. How about tomorrow evening, about 7 o'clock?
Jill:	Sure. Do you know how to get here?
Robert:	Not really, do I need to take a bus?
Jill:	Yes, you can take the number 50 bus. The journey takes about 30 minutes, but the ticket is only £4.
Robert:	Hmm, how about a train?
Jill:	You can come by train too. It will only take 10 minutes, but the tickets are quite expensive - they are £10.
Robert:	That's fine. I'll be there about 7. Looking forward to seeing you!
Jill:	Me too! Bye!

Part B:

Hi Rob, it's Jill again. I'm calling because I forgot to tell you how to get to my new house from the train station! Firstly, turn left when you leave the station. Then walk for about 2 minutes and you'll see a post office. Just after the Post Office, turn right, go over the bridge and you'll see my house at the end of the street - it's number 31. It's only about a 10 minute walk. I'm making pasta for dinner for us, can you bring some bread? See you tomorrow!
